Good Neighbor Day (U.S.A.)
Fourth Sunday in September

Good Neighbors

On September 17, 1787, the Constitution of the United States was signed. This document spelled out the rights and responsibilities of the citizens of the newly formed nation. Being a good citizen includes having respect for your community and neighbors. The fourth Sunday in September is Good Neighbor Day. As you work the maze, think about what it means to be a good neighbor.

First, use a pencil to find the path through the neighborhood. Erase if you take a wrong turn. Then, when you are sure you have found the path, color it in with a crayon.

Keep Going! Write two sentences telling how you can be a good neighbor. Draw a picture to go with them.
